FAITH CORNER:

KNOWING YOUR FAITH – How can Catholics best participate at Mass? We can best celebrate the Mass by a full, active, and alert participation which is both external and internal as well as by receiving Holy Communion. We should be united in faith and love together and try to avoid any appearance of division. It is as a group that the word of God is addressed to us and that we are invited to respond, to pray, to sing, to perform sacred actions, and to take certain positions. It is, moreover, precisely as a group of united Catholics that we should respond wholeheartedly.

Where especially do we encounter Christ in His saving mysteries? It is in the Mass that we encounter Christ together in His saving mysteries and that we receive more strength, grace, and peace. The more we can arouse our love for Christ and His Church, and the more wholeheartedly we can participate in the Mass, all the more are we likely to receive abundant blessings and graces from our dear Lord.
