FAITH CORNER:

KNOWING YOUR FAITH – How should we prepare for receiving Holy Communion worthily? We should prepare for receiving Holy Communion as follows: a) if we should happen to be in mortal sin, we must first make a good sacramental confession; b) we should also be sorry for any venial sins, but we need not go to confession before receiving; c) we should try to participate fully, consciously, and actively in Holy Mass. We should abstain from food and liquids (water and medicine excepted) for an hour before receiving Holy Communion, and, naturally, as far as possible, we should be dressed such that it may show our respect for the Mass. Also, we should approach the Table of the Lord with proper reverence, hands and eyes guarded in devotion. Jesus remains sacramentally present in the Holy Eucharist as long as the Sacred Species remain in the form of bread and the form of wine. When the Sacred Species cease to be, Christ's presence then also ceases to be present. However, scrupulousness is never necessary. All left-over consecrated Hosts are kept in a ciborium and placed in the tabernacle for people who come to pray and for bringing Holy Communion to the sick and elderly.
