MINISTRY OF HOSPITALITY: GREETERS AND USHERS

St. Ambrose is looking for volunteers for our new Ministry as Greeters. The role of a greeter is one of offering a warm, friendly welcoming presence to those coming to worship and answering any questions they have regarding the liturgy or the parish. A greeter must also be familiar with current events with the parish and arrive 15 minutes before mass. If you would like to be part of this ministry please email or call the office.

Ushers Needed! The role of an usher is to welcome parishioners and visitors to our church. They will select families to bring the offertory gifts, assist with the collection, hand out bulletins and willing to tidy up church after mass. If you are interested in joining our team of Ushers, please email or call the office.
