FAITH CORNER

WHAT IS THE SACRAMENT OF THE ANOINTING OF THE SICK?

What are the three distinct aspects of administering the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick? The three distinct aspects of this sacrament are: a) the prayer of faith, b) the laying on of hands, c) and the anointing with holy oil especially blessed by the bishop on Holy Thursday. The Prayer of Faith.

The community, asking God's help for the sick, makes its prayer of faith in response to the Lord's Word and in deep spirit of trust. It is the people of Christ who pray in faith during these rites for the sick. Even the entire Church is made present and praying together for those being anointed. And if they are able, the sick persons should certainly also join in this prayer of faith. The Laying on of Hands. The Gospels contain a number of instances in which Jesus healed the sick by laying on His Hands or even by some simple gesture as a mere touch. With this gesture of laying on his hands, the priest thereby indicates that this particular person now being anointed is the object of the Church's prayer of faith for healing. The laying on of hands is clearly a sign seeking a blessing as all present pray that by Christ's healing power the sick persons may be restored to health or at least become strengthened to withstand the illness. The laying on of hands also indicates that the Church is praying for the coming of the Holy Spirit upon the sick person. Above all this laying on of hands is a biblical gesture of healing.

The Anointing with Holy Oil. The practice of anointing the sick with blessed oil signifies both healing (Mk 6:13) and strengthening (Jas 5:14) as well as the presence of the Spirit. Then the sick person is anointed on the forehead and on the hands with the form: “Through this holy anointing may the Lord in His love and mercy help you with the grace of the Holy Spirit. May the Lord Who frees you from sin save you and raise you up.” Then the sick or elderly person and those in attendance respond “Amen” in fervent appeal to the divine Healer. Just a prudent or probable judgment about the seriousness of the sickness is sufficient. In such a case there is no reason for scruples, but if necessary a doctor may be consulted.
